Committee Charge	The Board appoints the publisher and editor of The Daily Iowan news organization; approves the annual operations budget; reviews monthly publisher reports regarding financial, staffing, business and legal matters, supervises and evaluates the publisher. The DI editor presents updates on activities and expenditures to the Board. While the editor reports to the Publisher, the Board considers performance and disciplinary matters involving the editor, as warranted.

Please indicate the typical frequency of meetings (e.g., first Tuesday of month at 4 pm). If there are subcommittees, please indicate the frequency of those meetings, too.	Meetings typically are monthly (less than during breaks) beginning at 5:15 p.m. and ending 6:30 p.m. In March, the meeting is held in conjunction with selection of the editor on the Monday before Spring Break and can last 2-3 hours, depending on the number of candidates. Four subcommittees of the Board – Education, Budget, Elections and Publisher Evaluation - meet as needed, about three times annually.
Current Year Activities	In addition to routine business matters, the Board selected scholarship winners, interviewed candidates and selected the editor for the upcoming year, met with auditors, and approved the budget. The board offered suggestions to address financial issues, fundraising, the upcoming 150th anniversary of the DI and future developments of news media operations.
Topics your committee anticipates addressing during the coming year	Budget concerns and raising revenue, the roles of news media and their staffs, staff educational initiatives, equipment, the publisher's retirement and hiring a replacement.

Other issues of concern	None
What should we tell applicants for this committee regarding expectations of members (anticipated workload, existence of subcommittees, etc.)?	Members are expected to attend all meetings and to be on at least one subcommittee, as listed above. Subcommittee assignments may take from one to five hourly meetings, scheduled to fit the members' schedules. Knowledge of news media operations is not necessary. Business operational oversight is a prominent role of the board.
