

Committee Member Expectations – Conflict of Interest in Employment Committee

The work of the committee is confidential. All work is conducted electronically with the exception of an annual fall in-person meeting and face-to-face orientation for new members. The committee interacts on a case by case basis, as needed. The primary obligation is to review proposed plans within a reasonable period of time.