

Committee Member Expectations – Committee on Diversity

Members should expect to attend meetings that meet for approximately one hour each month. Subcommittee work, which is not required of committee members, could potentially account for a few hours of work each semester, depending on the committee's current projects. Committee members may also periodically be asked to research information for special projects or reports.