

Committee Member Expectations – University Libraries Committee

The Committee will have six 1-hour meetings a year. Please make your best efforts to attend all meetings. Committee workload is relatively light. Discussions of library services and priorities are always interesting.