

Committee Member Expectations – University Safety and Security Committee

Monthly meetings for the full group. In the event that subcommittees would be formed, they would likely meet monthly as well.

We try to keep the workload minimal; however, depending on the projects, there may be an increase if the committee member volunteers to assist or take on more responsibility.