

Committee Member Expectations - Financial Aid Advisory Committee

Anyone interested in learning about policies related to financial aid would be welcomed. Committee meetings focus on the importance of financial aid in supporting UI students as they pursue their academic degrees. Regular attendance at meetings is expected for the effective functioning of the committee. Student participation on this committee is highly valued.