

Committee Member Expectations – Non-Resident Classification Review Committee

Committee members are expected to review appeals fairly and consistently under Board of Regents policy and state law, while preparing in advance, attending meetings, and participating actively in respectful discussion and decisions, estimated 3-5 hours per semester.

Note that committee members' terms run from August 1 to July 31.